	Resource Production: GCN provides educational and religious resources for LGBTQ Christians, family members, church administrators, and community leaders. Such resources include a documentary called "Through My Eyes," a film about gay Christian youth aimed at educating churches, families, and individuals about the consequences of faith-based homophobia in the lives of today's young Christians. The organization also produces a DVD titled "The Bible and Homosexuality" which addresses issues over interpretation and application of scripture to questions of sexuality. The organization offers a variety of print resources, such as church resource booklets and the book "Torn: Rescuing the Gospel from the Gay-vs.-Christian Debate" through its online store.	9,893		7,356
	Local Community: Volunteer groups throughout the country organize local, regional, and community-specific gatherings as a time of fellowship, worship, prayer, and engagement. These events range from one-night dinner gatherings to full multi-day retreats, and serve to better build up and support the GCN community, as well as offering safe spaces where individuals may not normally have access to one.	6,525		1,515
